

United Way of Story County

We all are being challenged in an unprecedented way, and we want you to know United Way of Story County is acting to address pressing needs, communicate available resources, and connect cross-functional teams. The situation is fluid, of course, and we are continually monitoring developments relating to COVID-19.

As we navigate these uncharted waters, we want to share a resource with you:

www.uwstory.org/covid-19-resources . This site lists Food/Hunger resources during the COVID-19 pandemic, Financial Assistance Programs, Mental Health resources and much more, all updated frequently. We encourage you to share this on your website, social media, email list serves, etc.
